Brainstorm & Idea Prioritization Template:

Brainstorming provides a free and open environment that encourages everyone within a team to participate in the creative thinking process that leads to problem solving. Prioritizing volume over value, out-of-the-box ideas are welcome and built upon, and all participants are encouraged to collaborate, helping each other develop a rich amount of creative solutions.

Use this template in your own brainstorming sessions so your team can unleash their imagination and start shaping concepts even if you're not sitting in the same room.

Define your problem statement
What problem are you trying to solve? Frame your problem as a How Might We statement. This will be the focus of your brainstorm.
5 minutes

How might we (your problem statement)?

Key rules of brainstorming
To run an smooth and productive session

- Stay in topic
- Encourage wild ideas
- Defer judgment
- Listen to others
- Go for volume
- If possible, be visual

Step-2: Brainstorm, Idea Listing and Grouping

2 Brainstorm

Write down any ideas that come to mind that address your problem statement.

15 minutes

Tip You can record a sticky note and use your hands to move it around the room during the brainstorming.

3 Group ideas

Take turns sharing your ideas while clustering similar or related notes as you go. In the next 10 minutes, give each cluster a sentence-like label. If a cluster is bigger than six sticky notes, try splitting it up into smaller sub-groups.

10 minutes

Tip Add a sentence-like label to each cluster to define the first sentence, organize, and categorize important ideas or concepts within your team.

Step-3: Idea Prioritization

4 Prioritize

Your team should all be on the same page about what's important moving forward. Place your ideas on this grid to determine which ideas are important and which are feasible.

10 minutes

Importance

Which of these ideas would get the most attention and effort in our organization today?

Tip The top-right area is often the most difficult to get into the grid. The bottom-left area is often the easiest to get into. Use these sticky notes to help you decide which ideas are most important and feasible.

Feasibility

Regardless of how important, achievable, or relevant, how easy is it to do this, given our current resources?
